CANTINA LAREDO

CLIENT: Oriole Restaurants

DESIGNER: Robert Angell Design International

LOCATION: London

YEAR: 2017

THE PROJECT

The Ginsberg family are dedicated to making Cantina Laredo a truly authentic modern Mexican restaurant experience. Tarryn Ginsberg teamed up with award winning studio Robert Angell to create an informal sharing menu, taking diners on an unforgettable journey through Mexico's diverse regional cuisines.

THE FURNITURE

Designer Robert Angell approached Nova Interiors with a design brief for an original dining chair and dining armchair. Robert also worked with the Nova team to create bespoke bar stools, which feature a steel base, poseur dining tables and banquette seating. Within the schemes rich material palette, for this contemporary Mexican restaurant, was Ash species timber used for table tops which were supplied with pedestal dining table bases.

WHAT THE CLIENT SAID

“Nova have always delivered on time and to the quality that was required and worked with us to achieve even tighter budgetary requirements. They are a first class supplier”.

Alan Garrick / Managing Director / Fitzsimons
